

A circular illustration in the top left corner shows a female doctor in a white coat holding a clipboard and talking to a male patient. In the background, there is a large DNA double helix and a magnifying glass, symbolizing medical research and diagnosis.

Transitioning pediatrics, pediatrics in transitioning

17&18 MARCH 2022
THE EGG BRUSSELS

Invitation

Lunch symposium

18th March 2022

Clinical signs and etiology of hypophosphatemia and X-linked hypophosphatemia and treatment of paediatric XLH patients.

Date: 18th March 2022

Time: 12.45 – 13.30 hrs

Location: The Egg, Brussels

Programme: Clinical signs and etiology of hypophosphatemia and X-linked hypophosphatemia

Elena Levtchenko, Prof. Dr., pediatric nephrologist, UZ Leuven

Treatment of paediatric XLH patients

*Emese-Erika Boros, Dr., pediatric endocrinologist, Hôpital Universitaire des Enfants Reine Fabiola HUDERF,
Brussels*

