

Privacy Notice

Effective date: June 2, 2025

Nutricia Export B.V. (“Nutricia”) is organizing an educational event on June 2–3, 2025, at our research center in the Netherlands. To help us organize the event efficiently, we collect a limited amount of personal data from participants.

What we collect:

- Your name and surname
- Email address
- Dietary preferences
- Participation details (e.g., Micropia visit, dinner, hotel return)
- Optional: consent to photos/videos
- Optional: subscription to Nutricia educational event updates

Why we collect your data:

We process this information to manage event logistics and ensure appropriate arrangements are made. Dietary preferences are processed under Nutricia’s legitimate interest to accommodate participants respectfully and safely. Consent is requested only where legally required (e.g., for photography or communications).

Who has access to your data:

Your personal data will only be accessed and processed by Act-Wise BVBA, the external agency organizing this event on our behalf. Nutricia will not access or store your data directly.

Retention:

Your data will be deleted two months after the event unless you opt in to receive educational updates from Nutricia. In that case, your contact details will be retained until you opt out.

Questions?

If you have any questions about how your data is used, please contact a Nutricia staff member during the event.
